Foreword

The twenty-fifth milestone has been reached; whether the vantage point is of significance, we are to judge.

The years of the past are bespeckled with joy, tears and—maybe heartaches. Old friends have passed away—new ones have emerged from the mass of faces. We stand by awaiting our turn. Twenty-five, fifty years hence, the memories will be dimmed—names will be forgotten, we will be the heartaches and the tears of friendships gained while here. Our spirit must survive.

Dedication

Life goes on. Few are the friends, that we can call friends, along the rough, brambled path. It is appropriate that these personalities be given a niche, a commemoration in the fading memory. With this in mind, without any attempt toward sentimentality, and in consideration fundamentally of her sympathy and understanding, we, the Senior Class of 1936, do respectfully dedicate this anniversary edition to

IN MEMORIAM

TO OUR FIRST PRESIDENT

This page is affectionately dedicated to the memory of Robert Lee Jones, whose vision and leadership in public education constitute a permanent contribution to the present and future citizenry of Tennessee. Deeply devoted to the rights of childhood, zealous in his advocacy of educational advancement, and courageous in his battling for equal educational opportunity, this peerless leader will ever be remembered as

"One who never turned his back but marched breast forward,
Never doubted clouds would break,
Never dreamed, though right were worsted, wrong would triumph,
Held we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better,
Sleep to wake."

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

". . . Doors, where my heart was used to beat
So quickly, waiting for a hand."

THE LIBRARY

"Fain to know golden things, fain to grow wise,
Fain to achieve the secret of fair souls."

TRAINING SCHOOL

"Life has her perplexed trying ground,
The meek grow meeker, the strong falter . . ."

SCIENCE BUILDING

"I looked on these and thought of thee
In vastness and in mystery."

LYON HALL

". . . Maddens with ecstasy, or blights with grief—
Fatal thy sickness is, and fatal thy relief!"

RUTLEDGE HALL

"My love involves the love before;
My love is vaster passion now."

JONES HALL

"A memory hath taken root in stone."

CAFETERIA

"I find no place that does not breathe
Some gracious memory of my friend."

PRESIDENT'S HOME

"While now thy prosperous labor fills
The lips of men with honest praise."

PRITCHETT ALFRED LYON
President

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

It is fitting that this yearbook, the twenty-fifth anniversary edition, should reflect the present achievements of the school and be prophetic of its future development.

The loyalty of its patrons, its student body, and its alumni have established the college firmly in the educational system of Tennessee, and have enabled it to expand its usefulness in taking its place with the leading teacher-training institutions of the South.

Standing upon the accomplishments of a quarter century, we are grateful for the achievements of the past, and look with confidence toward a future of greater growth in the development of character and service.

NATHANIEL CRAIG BEASLEY
Dean-Registrar

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

An opportunity to express oneself through creative activity is a supreme right. Our contributions are being made through service and creativeness. As one becomes more professionally-minded the greater do opportunities appear as virgin fields of adventure to be explored with zestful interest. May your explorations continue to be joyful and fruitful.

ATHLETICS

Coach—JOHNNY "RED" FLOYD

Athletics at Teachers College lay at the bottom of the heap. The flowers had already wilted in the vase. The murky depths beckoned. What manner of man was this who stepped forward, picked the grovelling invalid from out the debris-strewn waste, grew and perpetuated a lusty bloom and dropped an ironclad lid on the Stygian shadows below? Was this an Horatio Alger hero embodied in the flesh?

Assistant Coach—HAGAN POWELL

Cooperation spells success when linked with a grinding force turned toward a given goal. A subordinate can be either the recessive or the dormant personality—a balky horse or one eager to share and be led. Our success of the past season is typical of the excellent teamwork of the coaching staff.

Freshman Coach—O. L. "NOOBY" FREEMAN

"As the twig is inclined, so the tree is bent." The shaping of raw material into a collective unit is a difficult task. The first-year coach may, by strategic initiation, mold the stars of the coming years. This year's varsity was composed mainly of well-coached sophomores. A high tribute is this to our freshman coach.

Raiders Wallop Cumberland in Opener, 13-6

The Murfreesboro Blue Raiders opened the season here with a 13 to 6 win over the highly rated Cumberland Bulldogs. Approximately 4,000 fans turned out to witness the inauguration of the '35 season.

During the first two periods the home team was badly outplayed and it was in the second period that Donnell, fleet-footed Lebanon back, raced for the only Cumberland score after Hamel had recovered a Blue Raider fumble on the Raiders' 26-yard line. Huffaker's try for the extra point failed.

Murfreesboro's first chance came after the second half kickoff. After an exchange of punts had put Cumberland deep in its own territory, Bass, substitute Raider center, recovered a Bulldog fumble on Cumberland's 14-yard stripe. After three plays had gained but two yards, Smitherman shot a pass down the center of the field to Murphy, substitute back, for the score. Baskins made the extra point by placement.

The second Blue Raider score followed closely on the heels of the first. McGehee, on the second play after the kickoff, recovered a Cumberland fumble on the Bulldogs' 27-yard line. Smitherman then shot a pass to McGehee for the score. The try for extra point failed.

Classy Offense Feature of 20-0 Win Over Ala.

Murfreesboro, Tenn., Oct. 4, 1935.

By taking advantage of the first scoring opportunity, the Murfreesboro Blue Raiders got off to an early start and displayed a smooth-working offense here tonight in downing the Alabama Teachers of Jacksonville, Alabama, 20 to 0.

The first Raider score came on the fourth play of the game. The locals kicked off to Alabama. On the first play Alabama punted to their own 35-yard line. Hambrick, on the first play for the locals, took the ball and ran 25 yards before being hauled down on the visitors' 10-yard line. On the next play Hambrick carried the ball over for the first score. Baskins converted the extra point by placement. The second score came late in the third quarter, Hambrick intercepted an Alabama pass on Alabama's 45 and returned it to the 31. Repeated line plunges carried the ball to the visitors' 9-yard line. Smitherman then faded back and shot a pass to Murphy, who was standing across the last line, for the touchdown. The try for extra point failed. On the fourth play of the fourth quarter Jeff Harlan, substitute Raider back, took the ball on his own 24-yard line and raced 76 yards for the last touchdown. Murphy made the extra point on a line plunge.

Floyd Outfit Gains First S.I.A.A. Triumph Over Union

The Murfreesboro State College gained its first S. I. A. A. victory of the '35 season here tonight by defeating the highly-tutored Union University team, 7 to 0.

Doped to lose, the Blue Raiders of Murfreesboro galloped on the Jackson gridiron confident of a win. Not until the latter part of the first quarter did anything real exciting happen, a break came and when a Union back fumbled the ball on his own 21-yard line Murfreesboro recovered. Two plays at the line made five yards and on the third play Bubber Murphy, fleet-footed back for the visitors, took the ball and circled his own left end for 16 yards and a touchdown. Miles Baskins made the extra point by placement.

The Union team had the advantage in first downs and throughout the game they could go at will while playing in mid-field. When the ball drifted toward the 20-yard stripe the wonderful defense of the Floyd aggregation would tighten up and hold the Bulldogs to downs.

It was the wonderful punting of Woodrow Smitherman, stellar quarterback for the visiting team, that enabled the Murfreesboro team to hold the seven-point advantage. More than once did Smitherman punt the ball high and far when his team was in a dangerous position.

For the first time during the season a good running game was displayed by the Murfreesboro Blue Raiders in downing the West Tennessee Teachers of Memphis on the local field by the score of 35 to 0.

Soon after the game opened, John Hambrick, shifty Raider back, took the ball and raced 42 yards for the first touchdown. Miles Baskins place-kicked the extra point. A few minutes later in the same period Joe Troop tackled the Memphis safety man behind the visitors' goal line to give the home team two more points.

It was not until late in the second period that the locals were able to score again. After a sustained march from mid-field had placed the ball on West Tennessee's 10-yard line, Carter Smith, substitute back, carried the ball over for the next score. Again Miles Baskins made the try for extra point good.

Early in the third quarter Baskins ploughed through the line for six points. After the ball had been advanced from mid-field Baskins' toe again counted for the extra point. In the same quarter Murfreesboro took the ball on their own 38-yard line and marched to West Tennessee's 22 Murphy on the next play raced for the score. The extra point went wide.

Late in the fourth quarter John Hoover, hard-driving senior back, took the ball on the Memphis 9-yard line and carried it across for the last score of the game. The try for extra point failed.

The largest crowd ever to witness a football game in Murfreesboro saw an inspired team of Blue Raiders down a favored team of Hilltoppers from Western Kentucky, 7 to 0. The game was a happy surprise to the majority of the 6,000 or more spectators who saw the local team down the Kentucky eleven for the first time in the history of the meetings of the two teams.

The entire first half was played in mid-field with neither team making any serious threats. On the first play after the kickoff the locals tried a pass, but it was short and was intercepted by Western. After making a first down the Raiders tightened up and held the visitors for downs.

Western kicked off to Murfreesboro to open the last half. Joe Troop, consistent end for the winners, received the ball on his own 17-yard line and carried it to Western's 35 before being brought down. Smitherman then passed 13 yards to McGehee. On the next play Smitherman made three yards around left end to place the ball on Western's 19-yard stripe. Bubber Murphy, on the next play, circled his own left end for 15 yards and a first down on the visitors' four-yard line. Murphy then lost a yard at center, but on the next play Smitherman faded back and shot a short pass to Murphy, who stepped across the line for the six-pointer. Miles Baskins converted the extra point by placement.

Western threatened several times after the Raiders scored, but the local defense tightened up, with Todd Jackson, substitute tackle, leading the defensive play of the locals.

A fighting team of Blue Raiders from Murfreesboro, Tennessee, lost no time in piling up nineteen points, which was sufficient to down the strong Murray eleven, who were held to a single touchdown. This was the sixth straight victory for the Tennessee team and also kept their clean slate unblemished.

Soon after the game had gotten under way the ball went over to Murfreesboro in mid-field, and it only took two beautiful passes from Smitherman to Miles Baskins to produce the first score. The first pass was good for 22 yards, while the last was good for 25 and a score. Baskins' placement for extra point went wide.

In the third quarter the Raiders took the ball on Murray's 28-yard line. A pass, Smitherman to Murphy, was good for 27 yards, placing the ball on Murray's one-yard stripe. Murphy, on the next play, slid off tackle for the score. Baskins converted the extra point by placement.

During the fourth quarter both teams scored. Murray obtained possession of the ball on Murfreesboro's 32-yard line. Greenwell then shot a pass to Elder, substitute Thoroughbred back, that was good for 30 yards. It was first down and two to go. On the first play Fowler, another sub back, bucked the ball over for the six points. The try for the extra point failed. In this same quarter Murphy intercepted a Murray pass on his own 25 and ran 75 yards for the last score of the game. The attempt for extra point failed.

Murphy Runs Wild as Floyd Crew Wins, 20-7

Murfreesboro, Tenn., Nov. 15, 1935.

The Murfreesboro State College won its seventh straight victory of the year today at the hands of the Maryville College eleven. The locals came out on the long end of a 20 to 7 score. This game marked the third time that the winners had been scored on this season.

After threatening several times in the first period the Blue Raiders managed to push over two touchdowns in the second quarter. Early in the second period the Blue Raiders took the ball on their own 28-yard line and marched to Maryville's 45 from which point Smitherman shot a 20-yard pass to Murphy, who ran the remaining 25 yards for the first score. The try for the extra point failed.

A few minutes later Smitherman returned a punt 31 yards to Maryville's 36. Murphy shot through center for 14 yards and another score. Baskins place-kicked the extra point.

Shortly after the next kickoff Maryville made their only score. With the ball on his own 28-yard line, Odell passed to Henry, substitute end, for 20 yards, and as Henry was falling, after being knocked off balance, he flipped a lateral pass to Shields, who ran the remaining distance for the score. Overly made the extra point by placement.

In the fourth quarter, after two long passes had placed the ball deep in Maryville's territory, Smitherman passed 12 yards to Murphy for the final score. Smitherman converted the extra point.

The Murfreesboro State College Blue Raiders came into undisputed possession of the S. I. A. A. crown today by defeating the Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, 7 to 6.

Neither team was able to score during the first half. The Raiders made several attempts, but each time the fighting Eagles would turn them back. In the third quarter Troop recovered a Tech fumble on T. P. I.'s 20-yard line. Murphy gained five yards, then Baskins passed to Murphy, placing the ball on the six. After Smith, substitute back, had carried the ball to the four, Murphy went through the line for the score. Baskins converted the extra point by placement.

In the fourth period Tech recovered a Raider fumble on Murfreesboro's 40-yard line. Birdsong, reserve back, shot a short pass to Alexander, who lateraled to Davis, who carried the ball to the Raiders' 25-yard line. A pass and a run by Birdsong placed the ball on Murfreesboro's 4-yard stripe. With first down and four to go, Tech made three attempts and made two yards, but on the fourth play Birdsong carried the ball over for the touchdown. The try for extra point failed.

Bennett Leads Raiders

Murfreesboro, Tenn., March 1, 1936.

Despite the fact that the team was handicapped by the loss of players through illness and other sources, the Murfreesboro State College cagesters pulled down the curtain on the 1935-36 season with a fairly successful season.

When Coach Johnny "Red" Floyd called his boys together for the first drill there were four veterans present. Time for the first game rolled around and this same quartet was found stationed in four of the five playing positions. About the time that Captain Bennett, Mansfield, Simmons, and Thomas, who were teamed with Mammy Bass to round out the starting five, started clicking together, Evans Simmons left the team to take a teaching position in Florida. The loss of Simmons was a heavy jolt. Burrhead, as he was called, played two years of varsity ball and this was his third and was expected to be his best. Charles "Bubber" Murphy, crack sophomore performer, was called on by Coach Floyd to fill Simmon's place. Murphy filled the gap in fine style and proved to be the outstanding player on the team.

Ill fate had stayed away from the camp as long as possible and then the next thing we knew Mammy Bass was lost to the team due to an appendix operation. Bass' height had been a big asset to the team especially in getting the ball off the opponent's backboard. Wallace Campbell, a sophomore guard of no mean ability, was inserted in the starting line-up. Humpy proved more valuable to his team as the season passed and at the close of the campaign he was the most improved player on the squad.

As a whole the squad was handicapped by the lack of height. The team was especially fast and shifty, but at no time did the speed and shiftiness offset the lack of altitude. Taking everything in consideration, the material available, and the ability of the material on hand, Coach Floyd did a nice piece of coaching in turning out a team that finished up the season with a five hundred percentage in conference competition.

THOMAS BENNETT MANSFIELD

Murphy Leads in Individual Scoring

BRIEFS

Captain Freeland Bennett was probably the outstanding player of the team throughout the season. Several others had bright spurts, but the consistent play of Bennett offset the play of his mates.

To Bubber Murphy goes the honor of being high point man of the season. He registered 106 points, being followed closely by Captain Bennett, who tallied 99, and Leonard Mansfield, who hit the hoop for 87 points.

To Leonard Mansfield goes the honor of being the best performer to hit the basket at any angle with any kind of shot.

A plum to the Campbell brothers for their fighting spirit.

Another plum to Hamp Thomas for doing the best piece of guarding seen on the local floor in quite a while.

We would like to devote this space to two of our most dependable cage performers, who were compelled to desert the team, the first in order to take a teaching position and the other because of illness.

Evans "Burrhead" Simmons, for two years regular forward on the local five, was called to Florida to take a teaching position. Simmons was going good at the time of his departure and his best season was expected. Burrhead's loss was keenly felt and consequently hurt the standing of the team.

Robert "Mammy" Bass, giant center, who was playing his first year on the hardwood for the local institution, was forced to have an appendix operation and therefore was lost to the team the latter part of the season.

These two boys were being counted upon heavily and their loss to the team helped keep the win column low. So all we can say now is, "Better luck next time, boys."
